Be Working.

Time trials which were postponed from yesterday afternoon until today, will start about four o'clock this afternoon.

Breakfast this morning a large number of men were put to work planting a circuit of wire, Chief Warner, of the A. A. A., determined to take no chances of a short circuit from a line laid on the ground. Otfield and his monster are ready. Barney is always ready and is usually waiting on the follow to get ready.

Christie's front drive racer, with its powerful engines is ready, and the value of the combination is enhanced by George Robertson at the wheel of the great Lewellyn Bruce-Brown and his horse power Benz are ready. The wiring will be tested at half past one after noon and if any thing goes wrong, the trouble can be located in ample time to make a start.

There will be no admission charges but the crowd and automobiles are requested to keep off the beach after three o'clock.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

OF THE PAST WINTER

During this season residents and winter visitors who have been coming to Daytona for several years, have said to the writer, "You don't you, in the Daily News, say these tourists, who are growling about the cool weather, that this is an ordinary Florida winter, but much cooler, or more continuously cool, than usual."

It is so commonly the case that the weather at any tourist resort is something that never happens before, that it is unusually good, that it was not thought worth while to apologize for what had fallen to this section during the past winter, especially when the weather farther north was so much worse, yet there has been more continuously cold weather during the four months of December, January, February and the present month than the writer had ever before experienced in twenty-six years residence here, while Norton Reed, a guest of the Troy House, who has been coming to Florida and the East Coast for thirty-four years, recently said that he had seen nothing to equal it in all that time.

The winters are usually bright, with fairly warm weather, except for occasional cool snaps, of varying degrees of cold, lasting only two or three days, with days, and often weeks of fine, warm weather intervening.

GOVERNMENT TRYING TO SETTLE RAILROAD STRIKE

WASHINGTON, March 16 — Chairman Knapp of the Inter State Commerce Commission and Labor Commissioner Neill, mediators under the Erdman Act, left today for Chicago to attempt to avert the strike of twenty-seven thousand firemen and engineers on forty-nine western roads. Pending the outcome of this visit the strike has been postponed.

President Carter, of the Firemen's Brotherhood was not optimistic over the results of the intervention. He stated that he didn't believe the commissioners could affect a settlement, but was willing to let them try. The railroads are sanguine over the prospective settlement by mediators.

PROMINENT KENTUCKIAN A DAYTONA VISITOR

Mr. and Mrs. David H. Smith, who have been located for some time with Mr. and Mrs. S. Cass, on Orange avenue, departed this morning for their home at Hodgenville, Ky., celebrated as the birthplace of Abraham Lincoln.

Mr. Smith, a prominent attorney of Hodgenville, and ex-congressman from Kentucky, was instrumental in securing an appropriation of $10,000 from Congress toward the erection of the statue of Lincoln at Hodgenville, in addition to that appropriated by the Kentucky legislature and the money raised for the purpose by popular subscription.

Mr. Smith represented the State of Kentucky in the United States Senate for ten years and for thirteen years was a Congressman from that State.

MORTALITY AMONG DOGS OF DAYTONA.

Sometime between Friday night and Sunday morning several valuable dogs at least three of which were household guards, died under suspicious circumstances on South Palmetto avenue.

In the first instance Marshal John Myers found his valuable bloodhound, Roxy, dead in his yard Saturday morning, about 9 o'clock. Mr. Myers has refused several tempting offers for the dog and feels that he has sustained considerable loss in her death.

On the same street, and at about the same hour or a little later, Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. Rodgers, who is spending the time with her mother, discovered their household pet, Don, a beautiful shepherd dog in a dying condition, and who died a few minutes later. As a last act of recognition, Don turned his eyes lovingly on his mistress as she called his name. Mrs. Davidson is greatly grieved over the death of Don. He was a gift to Tommy Brower from his father shortly before he died. Tommy is now away from home, and it is hard for his grandmother to write him the ill tidings.

The third dog was a young bull dog, belonging to Mrs. Murray Foltz, and was a great pet with the family. Saturday night he was missing and was found dead in the yard Sunday morning. Also, B. E. Fortson, whose house was entered by sneak thieves last week, lost a guard dog in the same mysterious fashion.

COUNTING TEDDY'S BAG OF GAME.

MANY SPECIMENS VALUABLE TO SCIENCE WILL BE BROUGHT BACK TO THE UNITED STATES.

WASHINGTON, March 16 — Now that former President Roosevelt's trip is ended, so far as its scientific aspects are concerned, the scientists of the Smithsonian Institution are engaged in summing up the results. These are highly flattering to Mr. Roosevelt's ability as a naturalist. Approximately 500 valuable specimens have been secured for the Smithsonian, including the following:

Seventeen lions, 11 elephants, 10 buffaloes, 10 black rhinoceri, 9 white rhinoceri, 9 hippopotami, 9 giraffes, 3 leopards, 7 cheetahs, 3 giant elands, 3 sables, 1 sitatunga and 2 bongos. All these were killed in the interest of science and the specimens will be disposed of accordingly, the greater number going to the Smithsonian Institute. Mr. Roosevelt will retain not more than six trophies for himself.

From the point of importance, the most highly prized game may be rated as follows:

First, the giant elands, the first complete specimens of which family are now being taken from the country second, the white rhinoceri; third, the bongos, the first to be stalked and killed by a white man; and fourth the sitatunga, a species of antelope.

The naturalists secured a remarkable collection, comprising many thousands of birds and other mammals.

Science will be enriched by several new species and an enormous series of the smaller mammals of Africa. The game taken and the collections made constitute a world's record for a similar period of hunting and scientific research in Africa and the American museums will receive the greatest collection of African fauna in existence.

TRAINMAN KILLED ON WEST SHORE RAILROAD

ROCHESTER, MARCH 16 — W. N. Caldwell, a Buffalo trainman was killed today when a local West Shore train crashed into the New York Central fast mail in Hudson avenue yards here today. The mail had previously collided with two light engines, breaking the air hose. Caldwell was between the cars coupling when crushed. The Pullman car on the mail train was wrecked. Frank Pye, Syracuse, and F. J. Jamison, Marathon, N. Y., who were occupants of the car, were taken to the hospital but will recover.

PROMINENT TRAVELING MAN DEAD AT NEW SMYRNA

L. G. Lyman received a telegram from New Smyrna this morning stating that Capt. Bob Nelson, a resident at that place, who was traveling for the wholesale grocery firm of C. W. Bartleson, of Jacksonville, had died. The deceased was a prominent man, well known here, and a mason. The funeral will be held at New Smyrna tomorrow at 9 a. m., and Masons are requested to attend if possible.

WAR CLOUD AGAIN LOWERS

IF WE ARE TO BELIEVE THE YELLOW JOURNALS AND THE SPELLBINDERS.

WASHINGTON, March 16 — Once more the lowering yellow war cloud glooms the country. Once more the threatening skeletons of our national helplessness are dragged forth from their musty closets and refurbished up to be placed before the trembling public. Once more the tales of 500,000 little yellow men dumped onto our western coast to ravage and destroy are told in tones of apprehension and dismay.

War, bloody war, with the dissolution of the United States at the end of it, the entire country impoverished, and the now free American citizen ground beneath the yellow heel of the little men from the East, is again foretold with the grave wagging of heads and much bewailing the disappearance of the "good old American spirit."

"Absolutely defenseless," "at the mercy of the invader," "our unprotected coasts," "our merchant marine — the minus quantity," and all the old stock phrases of the patriotic prophet of the dire disaster of the nation are again in evidence. Up and down the corridors of Congress, in the anti-room of the White House, in the hotel lobbies, along the spacious streets of the capital, and most of all in the newspapers are the words of warning to be found.

Once more appears the "Japanese plans for invading the Pacific Coast," found by the ubiquitous "secret agent of the foreign government," who pursues his Machiavellian vocation from capital to capital. Half of the Mikado's Navy is to remain at home to guard the "Britannia of the East," and the other half conveying a fleet of transports is to dump half a million little yellow men "at a point of vantage on the Pacific Coast," and from thence the rich and prosperous west is to be overrun.

Again we are told that the American Navy is an antiquated tea service; that the navy personnel is too small, and badly officered; that the American Navy is a "tin soldier organization" officered by "mossbacks."

And—horror of horrors—it is now discovered that the American financiers hold millions of dollars worth of Japanese bonds, and that the gold those bonds took from America—real American gold—is to be used to finance a war against America.

But pause—the worst is yet to come—we have no modern battleships. There—the secret is out. We need a few billion dollars worth of floating iron and steel. The danger of invasion is immediate—therefore let us lay the keels of a couple of Dreadnoughts along the Atlantic coast in the shipyards, and scare the courageous enemy away.

NAGEL TO SPEAK IN BOSTON.

BOSTON, March 16 — The Boston Chamber of Commerce has completed elaborate arrangements for its annual banquet tomorrow night. The guest of honor and chief speaker at the banquet will be Secretary Nagel of the Department of Commerce and Labor

BUSY DAY COMING FOR PRESIDENT.

TAFT WILL ARRIVE IN CHICAGO TOMORROW MORNING AND WILL SPEND A STRENUOUS DAY.

CHICAGO, March 16 — From the moment when President Taft steps from the train, at eight o'clock tomorrow morning into the arms of a reception committee, until 10:30 p. m., when he will depart for the East will be spent in visits to the Chicago Newspaper Club, Chicago Press Club and the Traffic Club. The President will take luncheon at the Hotel LaSalle as the guest of Edward Hines.

The afternoon programme will begin with a visit to the convention of the American Association of Engineers of Maintenance of Way in session at the Congress Hotel. From the Hotel the President will be conducted across the street to the Auditorium, where he will deliver a brief address at the Conservation meeting. Thence a journey of another block will bring him to the Fine Arts Building, where he has promised to greet the Daughters of the American Revolution. After a brief visit to the Hamilton Club he will return to the Hotel LaSalle for the reception and banquet of the Irish Fellowship Club.

The arrangements for the banquet have been made on an elaborate scale. The affair is to be held in three dining rooms, so large has been the demand for seats, but all the guests will be seated in the main hall when the addresses are made. President Taft will probably not be present at the opening of the banquet, but will take his seat as soon as he is dressed after the reception. Not the least interesting feature of the arrangements is the fact that while delivering his address the President will stand on a bit of the "old sod," which the Irish Fellowship Club had sent over from Ireland especially for the occasion.

In addition to the President the speakers at the banquet will include Professor Joseph C. Monaghan, of Notre Dame University, and John Powers, of Escanaba, Mich, first United States attorney of that district by appointment of President Cleveland. Major General Frederick D. Grant an's wife and General Grant's full staff of officers. General Grant and his officers will be in full dress uniform.

President Taft left Washington this morning for his trip which will occupy eight days. He will travel twenty-five hundred miles. The first stop will be at Chicago. Friday afternoon he will arrive at Rochester and will take dinner with the Chamber of Commerce. Saturday afternoon he will be the guest of Governor Hughes at Albany. Sunday he will lunch with the Governor and a "few friends." He will attend the Yale Corporation meeting at Harvard Monday morning and the Junellers' Association at Providence in the evening. Tuesday he will spend the day in New York and leave for Washington Tuesday night.

WILL COMMENCE WAR ON THE HOUSE FLY.

WASHINGTON, March 16 — Preparations were commenced today by Uncle Sam's chief entomologist and his staff to wage a concerted national warfare on the common housefly several billions of which are expected to arrive shortly and take up their residence in the homes of the land. Dr. Howard, who is the big bug of the entomological department, is confident that such a crusade will be invaluable in preserving the temper of bald headed men and conserving the health of the people at large.

Dr. Howard says the campaign will be opened in the country districts, and the department will issue a farmer's bulletin giving advice as to the flies the flies are responsible for and how to eradicate them.

BALLINGER AND PINCHOT TO SPEAK.

THE OCCASION OF THE OPENING OF THE MINNESOTA CONSERVATION AND AGRICULTURAL CONGRESS.

St. PAUL, Minn., March 16 — The Auditorium was the scene today of the assemblage of many distinguished figures in the political, industrial and educational life of the nation. It was perhaps the most notable gathering that has ever met in the north-west to consider questions of great public importance. The occasion was the opening of the first Minnesota Conservation and Agricultural Development Congress which convened in response to a proclamation issued some time ago by Governor Eberhart.

Promptly at 10 o'clock this morning the congress was called to order by Governor Eberhart and was opened with an address by Archbishop Ireland. The opening addresses, appointment of the necessary committees and other incidental business occupied the forenoon.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon the delegates reassembled to discuss the subject of State Conservation and Development. The program of the session provide for addresses as follows: Practical Conservation and Development in Minnesota, Governor Adolph O. Eberhart; National Conservation and the Obligations and Opportunities of the States, Richard A. Ballinger, Secretary of the Interior; Minnesota — A State on the Eve of a Wonderful Future, Professor Albert Woods, dean of the Minnesota Agricultural College.

The congress will continue in session through the remainder of the week. The prominent speakers to be heard include Gifford Pinchot, former chief forester of the United States; James J. Hill, of the Great Northern railway; Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry of the Department of Agriculture; Dr. Charles R. Van Hise, president of the University of Wisconsin; Dr. John F. Fulton, president of the Associated Charities of New York City, and C. J. Blanchard, of the United States reclamation service.

Much interest centers in the addresses of Secretary Ballinger and Gifford Pinchot, not only because of the high stations the government has given them, but also because of the decided differences as to policy which has brought them into sharp conflict with each other.

TO TRY WOMEN FOR BIG "TOUCH."

NEW YORK, March 16 — Warden Van Norden, the former banker, was not in court today when the case of May Williams and Bessie Roberts, alias Kitty Dowell, the women accused of stealing $28,000 from him, was called for trial. Mr. Van Norden, it is understood, is in Europe and will not appear to prosecute. It is expected, however, that the trial of the women will proceed. Since their arrest last January the women have been in the Tombs in $30,000 bail.

By L. C. DEMAREE.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River. Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon this beautiful surface. Take out your fiel glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artists' brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cryptogamous forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage

Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another, so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering, "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite, —where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Frut.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and Squirrels, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and know into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you.
The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbuckto, and you will be "shown." Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horse power, up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from acanter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you do the roads and the beach are yours.
The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down into your wallet only for coin for auto, and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

SEABREEZE and DAY-TONA BEACH, two enterprising progressive towns on the Isthmus Peninsula, are geographically although incorporated as separate municipalities. The towns are the peninsula north and south, a distance of from three and one-half to four miles, and extend east and west from the surging seas of the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax River, the beautiful tide-water stream that sets them apart from Daytona, with which they have close communication by means of three bridges, as well as a half-hour ferry service.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter resorts and are making hundreds of new friends every year among those who desire to escape the discomforting extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists.

The mean average temperature, 80 degrees in the summer and 70 degrees in the winter, with an occasional extra rise or drop of a few days' duration, marks this as one of the most healthful locations in any section of the country, north, east, south or west.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as macadam and smooth as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth and air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straightaway record has been made, and all these records it continues to hold without rivalry.

The sand of this famous speedway is composed largely of the shells of the coquina clam, which are about one-half inch long and very thin.
For ages Nature has been rolling them up, washing them back into the surf and pulverizing them. Examined under the microscope each particle is round, unfit for mortar, builders say, because its smoothness prevents its holding together, yet, strange to contemplate, the very moment a wave leaves the wet, apparently soft beach, these round particles settle down into a cement almost as hard as asphalt, beyond the comprehension of one who has not seen it. Repairs are unnecessary, as twice each 24 hours it is entirely rebuilt by the tides.
The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet, and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobiling some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accommodation for all winter visitors.

Seabreeze contains a handsome opera house, and a Congregational Church; at Daytona Beach is a M. E.
Church. An excellent high school is situated near the division line between the two towns. Both towns have enterprising business establishments, as is evidenced by the advertisements on the left and right.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated.
The development of Daytona Beach has been fully as phenomenal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy. Flowering shrubs have been planted, which are covered with a wealth of bloom both summer and winter.

Work of rebuilding the Clarendon hotel is now in progress. This magnificent fire-proof structure, which is to contain 250 rooms, when completed will be the peer of any hotel in Florida. The site is immediately north of the clubhouse of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association.
The Ocean Pier is a great attraction to fishermen and it is lined summer and winter with enthusiastic disciples of Izaak Walton, who find it nothing unusual to land fish weighing several hundred pounds.

RAISE FOR READING

TROLLEY CAR MEN
 READING, Pa., March 16 — The Reading Traction Company, a subsidiary company of the Interstate Railway Co., today put into effect a voluntary increase in the wages of its conductors and motormen. The increase averages nearly 2 cents an hour.

FARMER LUMBER

DEALERS ORGANIZE
 SIOUX FALLS, S. D., March 16 — At a meeting here today steps were taken to complete the organization of the first farmers' lumber dealers' association in the country. The association will embrace all of the farmers' co-operative lumber companies of South Dakota. Thomas Hanson, of Baltic, S. D., is president of the organization.

TWO SISTERS WED

TWO BROTHERS
 READING, Pa., March 16—At the double wedding celebrated here today the Misses Mary Yocum and Elizabeth Yocum, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Yocum, became the brides, respectively, of Nicholas Colletti and Ferdinando Colletti. The bridegrooms are brothers and both are physicians.

A Quaint Epitaph.
 Here is an epitaph which may be read in an English churchyard attached to Leamington church:

"Here lies the body of Lady O'Looney, great-niece of Burke, commonly called the sublime. She was Bland, Passionate and Deeply Religious; also she painted in water colors and sent several pictures to the exhibition. She was the intimate friend of Lady Jones.
 And of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

A Domestic Convenience.
 Garson—Have you hot water in your house? De Long—Yes; my wife's mother lives with us.

A CHINESE SOLOMON.

His Decision In a Case of a Woman With Two Husbands.

There was a Chinese judge named Wang, who was as wise as Solomon.
 Before Wang two men and a woman appeared. The older man was the woman's first husband. He had gone to the wars and been reported dead. Now he returned alive to claim his wife.
 But she meanwhile had married the younger man, who refused to give her up; hence all three came before Wang that he might decide this truly difficult case.

"Yang Ki," said the judge to the woman, "which of these two men made the better husband?"

"Both were perfect husbands, my lord judge," Yang Ki modestly replied.
 So the judge told the men that he would keep the woman by him for a week, examining her thoroughly, and a week hence he would decide the case. Well, the week passed, and the two husbands came once more before the judge. He shook his head gravely and said to them:

"The woman, Yang Ki, has died.
 There is no case. Let her original husband take the body away from my house and pay for the burial."

"Ho, not I!" said the original husband. And, so saying, he darted from the court and was soon lost to view.

"You, then," said the judge to the other man, "must stand these burial expenses."

"Yes," the man answered, "that is just, and I will give this woman, who was good and kind, the finest burial my purse will allow."

The judge clapped his hands. Yang Ki, blushing and smiling, entered the courtroom in a rich dress of gold brocade.

"Take her," said the wise judge, "for you and not the other merit her love and service."

How the Rash Comes.

In measles a rash appears on the fourth day of the fever. It is first seen on the forehead, face and neck, afterward over the whole body. It consists of raised red spots. In scarlet fever the rash appears on the second day of the fever, commencing on the upper part of the chest and neck, whence it spreads over the body. In smallpox an eruption is seen on the third or fourth day on the face, neck and wrists. In chicken pox the eruption is made of small blebs. In typhoid fever the rash rarely shows itself before the seventh day of the fever. The spots are rose colored, and they disappear on pressure.

He Took the Hint.

"Do you believe in hypnotism?" he asked as he looked intently into her great brown eyes.

"I must," she answered, with all the bravery she could summon. "I know that you are going to kiss me, but I am powerless to protest."

The Perverse Comma.

That curious and now stereotyped blunder of punctuation which gives us "God rest you, merry gentlemen," as an inferior substitute for the quaint old greeting, "God rest you merry, gentlemen," turns up regularly every Christmas. It is a pity for the ancient formula to be thus perverted since "God rest you merry" or "Rest you merry" was a recognized form of salutation in Elizabethan days and may be found in the works of Shakespeare and of many contemporary writers, while for the modernized form, which obscures the original sense of the phrase, there is, of course, no authority whatever. If any one will have the curiosity to look up the old Christmas carol which begins with the words in question he will find them correctly punctuated. — London World.

Alaskan Glaciers.

An interesting fact about Alaskan glaciers is that some are "dead" and others are "alive." Davidson glacier, which is really a tongue of the Muir glacier, has been ascended by travelers for a number of years. It is a dead glacier, having a moraine of several miles between it and the sea. Looking at it from the boat, it represents a kaleidoscopic appearance as the sun shines upon it, and the surface seems scratched with tiny pin lines. These are in reality deep crevices, which must be approached cautiously, for they are lurking pitfalls for the unwary. — Vancouver Providence.

She Took Notice.

An inspector one day visited a country school taught by a young lady and in the course of the lessons said:

"Now, children, I wish you to take notice of what I do and then write an account of it."

Then he stepped to the blackboard and wrote a sentence upon it.

All the children except one wrote in effect that the "master" came into the school and wrote on the blackboard,
 "I love a good school."

One little girl, however, followed instructions more literally and completed the story by adding:

"And then he went to the platform, sat down, played with his watch chain, twirled his mustache and winked at the lady teacher." — Judge.

Listen.

"Well, Henry, how do you like your neighbors?"

"Not at all; they're so quiet that I daren't move or mamma can't hear what they're saying." — Bon Vivant

Self Protection.

"You didn't really need a wig."

"I was driven to it. Now the barber won't try to sell me any tonics or hair restorer." — Louisville Courier-Journal.

Never add the burden of yesterday's trouble to that of tomorrow. The one is past; the other may never come.

ITCHING ECZEMA WASHED AWAY.

Is it worth 25 cents to stop that awful agonizing itch? Surely you will spend 25 cents on your druggist's recommendation, to cool and heal and soothe that terrible itching eruption?

By arrangement with the D. D. D.
 Laboratories of Chicago, we are able to make a special offer of a 25 cent bottle of their oil of wintergreen compound, known as D. D. D. Prescription. Call, or write or telephone to Hankins' Drug Store.

We absolutely know that the itch is stopped at once by D. D. D. Prescription and the cures all seem to be permanent.

FLIGHT OF BIRDS.

Rapid Wing Movement Does Not Always Imply Speed.

Birds have different modes of flight just as men have different gaits in walking or running. Rapid wing movement does not always imply speed in flight any more than rapid leg movement implies speed in walking or running. With us it is the length of the stride that tells ultimately. What, apart from wing movement, tells in the bird's flight is not known.

Speaking broadly, long winged birds are strong and swift fliers; short winged birds are feeble in flight. When we consider that a cumbersome, slow moving bird like the heron moves its wings twice per second when in flight it is evident that many birds have a very rapid wing movement. Most small birds have this rapid wing movement with feeble powers of flight. The common wren and the dipper, for instance, have a flight like that of a young bird.

Many of our smaller migrants seem but to flit from bush to bush or from tree to tree. Members of the thrush family are low fliers, the blackbird in particular, with its hasty, hurried flight, often just avoiding fences and no more. Wagtails have a beautiful undulating flight with little apparent use of their wings. They look like greyhounds bounding through the air. Nearly all birds sail or float occasionally without the slightest movement of their wings. Even a large bird like a pheasant will glide in this way for more than two hundred yards.

Grouse have a rapid wing motion without any great speed, but when they sail, coming down with the wind, as they prefer to do, they go very fast. Before alighting they flap their wings several times very rapidly, like the clapping of hands. Most birds after gliding do this. Does it correspond to putting on the brakes or reversing the engine in the case of mechanical locomotion? With little apparent use of its wings the wood pigeon flies very strongly and rapidly. It never seems to "bring up" much before alighting, but crashes into a tree at full speed. When it rises its wings crack like pistol shots.

Ducks are strong on the wing and often fly in single file. Geese will fly wedge or arrowhead shape, generally at a considerable height. So do many gulls and other sea birds, in a stately, measured fashion, their calls occasionally sounding like "Left, right, left, right."

Kestrels have a beautiful, clean cut, clipping motion of their wings and look like yachts sailing through the air, while their hovering in the air is one of the mysteries of bird life. Peewees, which are so graceful in their motions on the ground, look like enormous bats when in flight. Swallows and in a very marked degree swifts have rapid wing movement with great speed and extraordinary power of flight.—Scotsman.

One Cold Saved.

Logic is logic, whether it touches the affairs of nations or a cold in the head. The conviction, says London Tit-Bits, was forced upon a Liverpool woman whose coachman, although he had been ill for several days, appeared one morning with his hair closely cropped.

"Why, Dennis," said the mistress, "whatever possessed you to have your hair cut while you had such a bad cold?"

"Well, mum," replied the unabashed Dennis, "I do be takin' notice this long while that whenever I have me hair cut I take a bad cold, so I thought to meself that now, while I had the cold on to me, it would be the time of all others to go and get me hair cuttin' done, for by that course I would save meself just one cold. Do you see the power of me reasonin', mum?"

Littlest Father.

The woman who came to clean up was telling how she left her boy to take care of the baby. The boy was two and one-half years old. The baby was six months.

"That's the youngest little father I ever heard of," said the flat dweller she was cleaning up for. "Do you lock them in?"

"Yes," said the cleaning woman. "Poor little fellow!" said the flat dweller. "Locked in to burn in case of fire! Some day when you are cleaning up for me I want to go over and see that little father, who ought to be in the cradle himself, taking care of the six-month-old baby. I want to just sit there and look on awhile. Poor little fellow!"—Chicago Inter Ocean.

What Accountancy Means.

Accountancy is not and never can be a matter of abstract knowledge to be transferred by means of lectures, but is the art of knowing how to apply that knowledge to the requirements of business under very varying conditions. It is essentially something that cannot be taught in lectures or classes, but can only be acquired as a result of careful individual study and a reasonable amount of actual practice.—Bookkeeping.

After the Honeymoon.

"Pa, what's the difference between idealism and realism?"
"Idealism, my son, is the contemplation of marriage; realism is being married."—Boston Transcript.

Greatly Overestimated.

Hewitt—Half the world doesn't know how the other half lives. Jewitt—I think you overestimate the number of people who mind their own business.—Brooklyn Life.

Do not think that years leave us and find us the same.—Meredith.

ON THE WITNESS STAND.

The Right of a Witness to Qualify His Answers.

Like Stevenson's child, as a rule, the witness should speak only when he is spoken to. He should not volunteer anything except that when he is asked a question which with apparent innocence could really be answered "Yes" or "No," he has a right to qualify a plain "Yes" or "No." This of course happens most often in the case of experts. The "Yes, but I will explain," and "No, but I will explain," of one of the distinguished expert witnesses for the commonwealth in the case of commonwealth versus Quay, which was tried before Judge Biddle in the court of quarter sessions of Philadelphia county several years ago still linger in the writer's memory.

It is a mistaken notion that a witness is bound to answer "Yes" or "No." It is surprising that such should have ever been the received theory, but then the hunting down of witches and the expounding of the doctrine of witchcraft were regarded as proper judicial functions only a century or two ago. The theory as to categorical reply was completely exploded by the gentleman who propounded the question, "When are you going to stop beating your wife?" and demanded a categorical answer. If the lawyer attempts to tell you that you must answer "Yes" or "No" you have the right to say that the question is one which is not susceptible of a categorical answer. This should floor counsel for the moment.

Mannerly behavior on the part of witnesses includes keeping one's temper under almost all provocations. Cross examination for the purpose of testing your memory is not intended to be and should not be regarded as insulting. It should therefore not be resented. If the cross examination transcends all bounds and your patience is exhausted a sharp retort will not necessarily injure your testimony with the jury. The jury sympathizes with the witness more than with the lawyer, and, while mere smartness for the sake of being smart or because of a too expansive personality is to be deplored, you will be sure of a sympathetic audience if you are in the right and counsel in the wrong.—Ira Jewell Williams in Green Bag.

UNDER AN UMBRELLA.

An Expensive Adventure of a Famous Parisian Wit.

Romieu, the famous Parisian wit, was one day caught in a shower and forced to seek refuge in a doorway of the opera house. It was 6 o'clock already, and he had an engagement in the Cafe de Paris for that very hour. The rain fell in torrents. There was no carriage to be had. He had no umbrella. What was to be done? While he was lamenting his bad luck a gentleman with a large umbrella passed by. Romieu was seized with a sudden inspiration. He rushed out and grasped the stranger by the arm and gravely installed himself under the protecting umbrella.

"I am overjoyed to see you," he immediately began. "I have been looking for you for two weeks. I wanted to tell you about Clementine."

Without giving the stranger time to express his surprise Romieu rattled away with gossip and anecdote until he had led the unknown companion to the door of the Cafe de Paris. Then he glanced at him with a face of well feigned astonishment.

"Pardon, monsieur," he cried. "It seems I am mistaken."

"I believe so," said the stranger.

"Good gracious!" added Romieu.

"Be discreet. Don't repeat what I have told you."

"I promise you."

"A thousand pardons!"

Romieu hastened within the cafe and amid great laughter told the adventure to his friends. Suddenly one of them said:

"Your cravat is rumpled."

Romieu put his hand to his neck and turned pale. His pin, a valuable sapphire, was gone. On further examination his purse and watch were found to be gone. The man with the umbrella was a pickpocket.—London Tit-Bits.

An Italian Superstition.

There is an Italian superstition that whenever a king belonging to the house of Savoy dies a huge eagle is to be seen crossing the Alps over the valley of Aosta in the direction of Savoy, and the conviction prevails among the inhabitants of Aosta that this eagle guides the soul of the dead sovereign to join those of his ancestors in Savoy. When King Charles Albert died at Lisbon, King Victor Emmanuel died at Rome and King Humbert was assassinated at Monza in 1900 the eagle was seen winging its way across the Alps. All other eagles crossing the Alps don't seem to count for much.

Ancient Ropes.

Ropes made of various kinds of fiber and leather are of very ancient date. Ropes of palm have been found in Egypt in the tombs of Beni-Hassan (about 3000 B. C.), and on the walls of these tombs is also shown the process of preparing hemp. In a tomb at Thebes of the time of Thothmes III. (about 1900 B. C.) is a group representing the process of twisting thongs of leather and the method of cutting leather into thongs.
